DETAILED ACTION

1. The preliminary amendment filed 17 September 2003 has been entered. Claims 1 – 13 have been canceled; claims 14 – 22 are new.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 3. The pending claims encompass multiple nucleic acids, each of which is patentably distinct, as well as vectors and host cells comprising same. Each nucleic acid has a unique sequence, and therefore has unique physical and biochemical properties. The nucleic acid sequences cannot be substituted one for the other and thus are patentably distinct. Furthermore each nucleic acid sequence requires its own search in the computer databases. Searching for any one nucleic acid sequence will not be informative as to the novelty or non-obviousness of any other sequence. Thus consideration of more than one nucleic acid sequence would be burdensome for the examiner.

Therefore, in order to be fully responsive to this office action, applicant must elect a single nucleic acid sequence for prosecution on the merits from the many that are listed in claims 14 – 16. Applicant is advised that this is not an election of species, but rather is a restriction requirement.

Applicant is advised that claims to a single nucleic acid will be examined along with claims drawn to vectors and host cells comprising same.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
